

Snowbird

Words and Music by RONNIE SANDERS

Soprano I-II      p

Alto      p

Piano Reduction      p

A snow-bird sleeps a - mong the thorns rest - ing un-til the morn-ing comes; She

Sop I-II      6

Al      6

slow - ly yawns her - self a - wake and gives her wings a gen - tle shake. Then

Sop I-II      10

Al      10

comes the time for her to fly a - mid the clouds a - cross the sky; She

14

Sop I-II

greets the wind where she belongs and softly sings this snow-bird song:

Al

14

Sop I-II

f

"Wind, lift me high - er and high - er, give me a breeze that will lift me with care.

Al

18

Sop I-II

f

Wind, lift me high - er and high - er, take me a - way from the earth to the air." Then

Al

22

Sop I-II

Fine p

Wind, lift me high - er and high - er, take me a - way from the earth to the air." Then

Al

22

Sop I-II

Fine p

26

Sop I-II

in the spring with two eggs in her nest The snow - bird will qui - et - ly sit down and rest. As her

Al

26

26

Sop I-II

30

Sop I-II

eggs be - gin hatch - ing while rest - ing so long The snow - bird brings food while she sings them her song:

Al

30

30

Sop I-II